1. Introduction
We take your privacy very seriously. Please read this privacy policy carefully as it contains important information on who we are and how and why we collect, store, use and share your Personal Data. It also explains your rights in relation to your Personal Data and how to contact us or supervisory authorities in the event you have a complaint.

Our use of your Personal Data is subject to your instructions, the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), other relevant UK and EU legislation and our professional duty of confidentiality.

We will always comply with the GDPR when dealing with your personal data. Further details on the GDPR can be found at the website for the Information Commissioner (www.ico.gov.uk).

3. Personal Data in relation to interaction with our website

3.1 How do we collect your data?

We collect Personal Data from visitors to this website:

1. through the use of online forms, email hyperlinks and the contact us page.
2. when you e-mail us with an enquiry

The Personal Data we collect are name, address, email, telephone number, associated company (if relevant) and any other Personal Data you include.

3.2 Where your data is stored?

When you contact us as set out above, the data is sent through to our e-mail system, Outlook Exchange so that the relevant person can review and process the information.

Emails are retained in accordance with our Retention and Destruction Policy.

3.3 How and why we use your Personal Data

We have a legitimate interest in processing your data for certain reasons i.e.

- Providing information about services
- Providing and personalising our services
- Dealing with your enquiries and requests

We will seek your consent prior to sending any marketing materials. This may be in relation to newsletters or events. You can update your preferences as to what information you receive at any time by selecting the preference centre at the bottom of any e-mail that you receive from us or emailing marketing@paragoncosts.com.

You have the right to opt out of receiving any marketing materials at any time by:

- Contacting us by email to marketing@paragoncosts.com.

This Personal Data is required from you to enable us to provide our service to you. If you do not provide Personal Data we ask for, it may delay or prevent us from providing services to you.

4.2 How your Personal Data is collected

We collect most of this information from you. However, we may also collect information:

- from publicly accessible sources, e.g. Companies House or HM Land Registry;
- directly from a third party, e.g. sanction screening providers
- from a third party with your consent, e.g.: your bank or building society, another financial institution or advisor, consultants and other professionals we may engage in relation to your matter or your employer and/or trade union, professional body or pension administrators;
- via our information technology systems, e.g.:
case management, document management and time recording systems;

- through our own website
- relevant websites and applications;
- Automated monitoring of our websites and other technical systems, such as our computer networks and connections, CCTV, communication systems and e-mail.

- Via other processes we have in place e.g. Reception logs

4.3 How and why we use your Personal Data

Under data protection law, we can only use your Personal Data if we have a proper reason for doing so, e.g.:

- to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations;
- for the performance of our contract with you or to take steps at your request before entering into a contract;
- for our legitimate interests or those of a third party; or
- you have given consent.

A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to use your information, so long as this is not overridden by your own rights and interests.

The table below explains what we use (process) your Personal Data for and our reasons for doing so:

</tbody>
</table>
In addition, we will only undertake the following activities having received your specific consent,

- to use your matter as part of a case study or article to promote our expertise
- to use you as a reference.

The above table does not apply to special category Personal Data, which we will only process with your explicit consent.

4.4 Marketing communications

We may use your Personal Data to send you updates (by email, text message, telephone or post) about legal developments that might be of interest to you and/or information about our services.

We use Mailchimp to store our marketing contacts and to send out marketing communications. Mailchimp is a US Company and has signed up to the EU-US Privacy Shield. Further information can be found on their website here.

Business Clients

We have a legitimate interest in processing your Personal Data for marketing purposes (see above ‘How and why we use your Personal Data’). This means we do not usually need your consent to send you marketing communications. However, where consent is needed, we will ask for this consent separately and clearly.

Individual Clients

We will seek your consent in processing your Personal Data for marketing purposes (see above ‘How and why we use your Personal Data’).

All Clients

We will always treat your Personal Data with the utmost respect and never sell or share it with other organisations for marketing purposes.

You have the right to opt out of receiving marketing materials at any time by:

- contacting us by email to unsubscribe or update your marketing preferences to marketing@paragoncosts.com
- using the ‘unsubscribe’ link in emails

We may ask you to confirm or update your marketing preferences if you instruct us to provide further services in the future, or if there are changes in the law, regulation, or the structure of our business.

4.5 Who we share your Personal Data with

We routinely share Personal Data with:

- professional advisers who we instruct on your behalf or refer you to, e.g. barristers, medical professionals, accountants, tax advisors, expert witnesses or other experts;
- other third parties where necessary to carry out your instructions, e.g. your mortgage provider or HM Land Registry in the case of a property transaction or Companies House;
- the Courts
- credit reference agencies;
- our insurers and brokers;
- external auditors, e.g. SRA and the audit of our accounts;
- our banks;
- external service suppliers, representatives and agents that we use to make our business more efficient, e.g. typing services, marketing agencies, document collation or analysis suppliers;

We only allow our service providers to handle your Personal Data if we are satisfied they take appropriate measures to protect your Personal Data. We also impose contractual obligations on service providers relating to ensure they can only use your Personal Data to provide services to us and to you.

We may disclose and exchange information with law enforcement agencies and regulatory bodies to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations.

4.6 Where your Personal Data is held

We will store this Personal Data primarily on our Case Management System although Personal Data may also be stored in our Outlook Exchange system and on paper files.

Information may be held at our offices and those of our third party agencies, service providers, representatives and agents as described above (see ‘Who we share your Personal Data with’).

Some of these third parties may be based outside the European Economic Area. For more information, including on how we safeguard your Personal Data when this occurs, see below: ‘Transferring your Personal Data out of the EEA’.

4.7 How long your Personal Data will be kept

We will keep your Personal Data after we have finished advising or acting for you. We will do so for one of these reasons:

- to respond to any questions, complaints or claims made by you or on your behalf;
- to show that we treated you fairly;
- to keep records required by law.

We will not retain your data for longer than necessary for the purposes set out in this policy. Different retention periods apply for different types of data and we will retain data in accordance with our Retention and Destruction Policy, which may change from time to time.

When it is no longer necessary to retain your Personal Data, we will delete or anonymise it.

5. Personal Data processed in relation to non-Client contacts

We will collect:

- your name, address and contact details.
- any associated Company details (if you are a business contact)
- your marketing preferences and details of any services you have subscribed to
- details of any events that you have attended.
- any other information about your relationship with us.

We use Mailchimp to store our marketing contacts and to send out marketing communications. Mailchimp is a US Company and has signed up to the EU-US Privacy Shield. Further information can be found on their website here.
In relation to business contacts, we consider that we have a legitimate interest to process this data because we will be providing information about our services. We will seek consent from individual contacts for the purposes of sending marketing communications.

If you attend our offices for an event or any other reason, your details may be retained in our reception logs and other attendance lists.

6. Personal Data processed in relation to other parties in client matters.

We will collect the following Personal Data in relation to the other side in Client matters:

1. Name, address and contact details
2. Other Personal Data to allow us to progress our Client’s matter.

We will store this Personal Data primarily on our Case Management System although Personal Data may also be stored in our email system, Outlook Exchange and on paper files.

We have a legitimate interest in processing this Personal Data as it is required for us to properly perform our contract with our Client.

In addition, on a particular matter, we may process Personal Data in relation to other third parties involved e.g. Lawyers, experts etc. This is again necessary for us to be able to advise our Clients and be able to properly perform our contract with them.

7. Personal Data processed in relation to Suppliers

We will collect:

1. Name, Business name and address and other business information
2. Financial details

Such Personal Data is necessary for the purposes of fulfilling our contract with you.

8. Transferring your Personal Data out of the EEA

It is sometimes necessary for us to share your Personal Data outside the European Economic Area (EEA), e.g.:

- with your and our service providers located outside the EEA;
- if you are based outside the EEA;
- where there is an international dimension to the matter in which we are advising you.

These non-EEA countries do not have the same data protection laws as the United Kingdom and EEA. We will, however, ensure the transfer complies with data protection law and all Personal Data will be secure.

If you would like further information please contact us (see ‘How to contact us’ below).

9. How long your Personal Data will be kept (not clients)

We will not retain your data for longer than necessary for the purposes set out in this policy. Different retention periods apply for different types of data and we will retain data in accordance with our Retention and Destruction Policy, which may change from time to time.

When it is no longer necessary to retain your Personal Data, we will delete or anonymise it.
10. Your rights

You have the following rights which you can exercise free of charge:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Access</th>
<th>The right to be provided with a copy of your Personal Data (the right of access)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

For further information on each of those rights, including the circumstances in which they apply, please contact us or see the Guidance from the UK Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO) on individuals’ rights under the General Data Protection Regulation.

If you would like to exercise any of those rights, please:

- email, call or write to us - see below: ‘How to contact us’; and
- let us have enough information to identify you (e.g. your full name, address and client or matter reference number, if you are a client); and
- let us have proof of your identity and address (a copy of your driving licence or passport and a recent utility or credit card bill); and
- let us know what right you want to exercise and the information to which your request relates.

11. Keeping your Personal Data secure

We have appropriate security measures to prevent Personal Data from being accidentally lost, or used or accessed unlawfully. We limit access to your Personal Data to those who have a genuine business need to access it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

12. How to complain

We hope that we can resolve any query or concern you may raise about our use of your information.

The General Data Protection Regulation also gives you right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular in the European Union (or European Economic Area) state where you work, normally live or where any alleged infringement of data protection laws occurred. The supervisory authority in the UK is the Information Commissioner who may be contacted at https://ico.org.uk/concerns or telephone: 0303 123 1113.

13. Changes to this Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy was published on 17th May 2018 and last updated on 25th May 2018.

We reserve the right to amend this Privacy Policy from time to time without prior notice. You are advised to check this website regularly for any amendments (but NB amendments will not be made retrospectively).

14. How to contact us
